

John Marman

John was born and raised in Eastern Montana. He completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Nebraska and graduate work at the University of Arizona. He and his wife, Madonna, have three children together. All three children attended the College of the Desert and then went on to four year institutions. In 2002, after 33 years as an Athletic Director, he retired and continues his dedication to community service and education.

Mr. Marman has chaired many committees and organizations over the years. He was formerly the President of the Rotary Club, Chairman of the Board for the College of the Desert Alumni. He is currently Chair of the College of the Desert Board Trustees and the Palm Desert Sister City Foundation. He has been a Riverside County Fair Board Member for seven years and proudly represents and encourages education.
